Highly rated for financial strength

As members of AIG Life & Retirement, our U.S. life insurance companies (American General Life Insurance Company, The Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company, and The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York) have collectively received strong financial strength ratings from independent ratings agencies, reflecting their financial stability and their ability to meet their obligations to their policy holders and others. The most recent published financial strength ratings for these entities are:

Agency	Rating
Standard & Poor's	A+ Strong
Moody's Investors Service	A2 Good
A.M. Best Company	A Excellent
Fitch Ratings	A+ Strong

Last updated March 29, 2022. Ratings are subject to change at any time.

Ratings outlooks: S&P, Stable; Moody's, Stable; A.M. Best, Stable; Fitch, Stable.

Note: Standard & Poor's 21 ratings are a measure of claims-paying ability and range from AAA (Exceptionally Strong) to R (Regulatory Action). Moody's Investors Service's 21 ratings are a measure of financial security and range from Aaa (Exceptional) to C (Extremely Poor). A.M. Best's 15 ratings are a measure of claims-paying ability and range from A++ (Superior) to F (In Liquidation). Fitch's 19 ratings are a measure of insurer financial strength and range from AAA (Exceptionally Strong) to C (Distressed).

At AIG Life & Retirement, our mission is to help people achieve financial and retirement security.

While ratings can be objective indicators of an insurance company's financial strength and can provide a relative measure to help select among insurance companies, they are not guarantees of the future financial strength and/or claims-paying ability of a company and do not apply to any underlying variable portfolios, where applicable.

Annuities are long-term products designed for retirement. Early withdrawals may be subject to withdrawal charges. Partial withdrawals may reduce benefits available under the contract, as well as the amount available upon a full surrender. Withdrawals of taxable amounts are subject to ordinary income tax and, if taken prior to age 59½, an additional 10% federal tax may apply. An investment in a variable annuity involves investment risk, including possible loss of principal.

Variable annuities are sold by prospectus only. The prospectus contains the investment objectives, risks, fees, charges, expenses and other information regarding the contract and underlying funds, which should be considered carefully before investing. Please contact your financial professional or call 1-800-445-7862 to obtain a prospectus. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing.

All contract and optional benefit guarantees, including any fixed account crediting rates or annuity rates, are backed by the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company. They are not backed by the broker/dealer from which the annuity is purchased.
